I create digital and mixed-media art expressive of spiritual themes, sacred texts and theological reflections. I've completed more than 80 liturgical-art commissions that reside in agency, parish, and private collections. My exploratory work has been exhibited in hundreds of juried solo, group and invitational exhibitions in Europe, Asia and North America. I'm also a published author of books, magazine articles, and journal abstracts and a frequent presenter on subjects related to art, spirituality, and worship.
